

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – October 25, 2011

Contact: Vicky Sutton-Jackson, 803-934-3234, vsutton-jackson@morris.edu

Kwadashea Cummings Crowned Miss Morris College

SUMTER, SC - President Luns C. Richardson formally crowned Kwadashea C. Cummings Miss Morris College on Friday, October 21, 2011. A senior history major from Greenwood, S.C., Cummings is the 21-year old daughter of Raymond and Stacy Durant.

Cummings entered Morris College in the fall of 2008. She is very involved in campus life. She is on the Dean's List and a member of Student Leaders, Morris College Ambassadors, Cooperative Education Program, Morris College Chapter of the NAACP, Pre-Alumni Council and the Nu Gamma Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

President Richardson commended Cummings for her academic excellence and civic involvement stating, "I place this crown upon your head with great pride. We will look to you for leadership. The crown is the supreme symbol of office. The scepter is the symbol of office and of power." The President stated this year's coronation was his 38th.

Kwadashea Cummings is the 58th young lady to be crowned Miss Morris College.

The coronation included the participation of classes, clubs, and organizational queens and escorts in addition to the Ladies-In-Waiting and the attendants to Miss Morris College, Chariti Crum from Lexington, S.C. and Veronica Rolan from Brooklyn, N.Y.