- Please emphasize to your families, friends, and other guests that the baccalaureate address is a farewell sermon at the Commencement Ceremony. It is a solemn ceremony and should be observed as such. The sanctity and dignity of the ceremony must be maintained at all times, therefore, applauding and cheering are not allowed. The time to celebrate and to cheer is after the President confers the degrees, which takes place after the last student's name is called. Violators will be escorted out. So please ask your relatives and friends to be considerate and respectful of others. They will have plenty of time to celebrate after the ceremony is over.
