

Assistant/Associate Professor of Sociology

The selected candidate will teach 12 to 15 credit hours of undergraduate level courses each semester from the college's curriculum in the Sociology major program and related Social Science disciplines. Additional duties include supervision and assessment of students in required field experiences and academic research, academic advisement of students, conducting professional research and participating in professional meetings, and service on various college committees.

A Master's degree in Sociology is the minimum qualification for this position. However, an earned Ph.D. along with previous college-level teaching experience is strongly preferred.
