Our Call Me Mister spotlight this month will highlight Mr. K’Sean Dotch. K’Sean is a sophomore majoring in Elementary Education with the aspiration of being a superintendent along with the goal of being a mental health therapist for the African-American community. K’Sean is a double legacy student at Morris College, with his mother graduating in 2000 and his grandmother in 1984. In his spare time, he loves to travel and try new food. His goal is to travel to Bora Bora. K’Sean enjoys listening to various music styles and is an advocate for black civil rights.
Call Me Misters and interested Call Me Misters listened to Dr. Hagerty, Principal of Crosswell Dr. Elementary School, as he shared information about his school. After the discussion, the Misters decided to serve as mentors for students at Crosswell Drive.

Stay tuned for more details.
Morris College Misters are gearing up to host the Fall Call Me Mister Recruitment Showcase, which takes place on November 16th from 8am-2pm.
