WE ARE HORNET STRONG

In an effort to remain connected, we are hosting a Virtual Spirit Week! We are asking students, alumni, faculty, and staff to show your Hornet pride by taking pictures each day and posting them on our Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter pages using the hashtag #HORNETSTRONG. See page 3 for details!
Morris College, in accordance with South Carolina Governor Henry McMaster’s executive order concerning higher education institutions, will extend our move to online instruction for all courses for the remainder of this semester. In this way, all students will have the opportunity to complete their spring 2020 courses while maintaining safe and healthy precautions against COVID-19. Morris’s strength is that we are a family of caring individuals who want nothing but the best for one another and our tradition of delivering a student-centered experience.

Effective Immediately:
- We will continue with online instruction for the remainder of the semester.
- All boarding students please reference the notice from Residential Life posted on the college website located under NEWS. www.morris.edu/news
- All campus events are canceled.
- Commencement is postponed.

We at Morris College understand that the coronavirus is an evolving global situation, and we strongly encourage you to stay abreast of updates by visiting the COVID-19 link on our website. COVID-19 is a rapidly changing health issue, and we will continue to provide updates as quickly as possible when additional information becomes available.

LIBRARY ANNOUNCEMENT

Due to safety concerns during the COVID-19 pandemic period, The Luns C. Richardson Learning Resources Center is requesting that all library users who have checked out materials to retain them until the end of the semester. Graduating seniors must return materials before they leave the college. Overdue library fines during the pandemic will be waived for all students.

AROUND CAMPUS

COMMENCEMENT POSTPONED

Based on the current situation with the Coronavirus (COVID-19), the college has decided that in-person commencement exercises will not be able to take place this May. However, we know how important an in-person commencement is to our seniors, their families and the Morris community. Commencement will be rescheduled for a later date. The date has not yet been confirmed.

We look forward to celebrating our graduates’ achievements with them, their parents, family members and friends. As soon as details are complete regarding the new date, the college will communicate that information to all.

We thank you for your continued patience in this difficult period. We will get through these challenges together as we always do at Morris College.
